ICANN85
Sessions of Interest for NIXI Fellows

Introduction

ICANN is a nonprofit, public-benefit organization with the mission to ensure the stable and secure operation of the Internet's unique identifiers. Find out more on our ICANN Fact Sheet or ICANN for Beginners page.

This flyer highlights the key ICANN85 sessions of interests for first-timers via three tracks: Policy Development, Technical Training, and the New gTLD Program: 2026 Round. The first page lists the common sessions of interest while the second page shows the specific sessions for each track. All times are in Indian Standard Time (IST), UTC +5:30. For acronyms and terms, please refer to the dedicated webpage.
