Umie/Mosaic

Umie has a large food court on the 4f floor but also has some stand-alone restaurants. Mosaic, the attached mall sitting over the water has an abundance on stand alone restaurants with plenty of variety. Japanese, Italian, Indian, Spanish, Brazilian BBQ. Unfortunately, their website does not have a great guide to the restaurants in English. However, you can look through a list of the restaurants using the sites search function here. https://en.umie.global/shop-umie/?s=&Shop_Genre5B%5D=03

Le Coeur, Hotel La Suite Kobe 2F

Being a popular small hotel they should be used to taking calls in English and arrange meals for vegetarians upon request. For info check this URL. <http://global.l-s.jp/dining/restaurant-le-coeur-kobe/>

Brasiliano

Brazilian BBQ located on the 3f floor of Mosaic. 150 seats, including a large terrace that overlooks the harbour. They have English menus. They mostly do an all you can eat meat and buffet with a salad bar. It costs around USD 25/person in the evenings. They also do lunch at a lower price. <http://umie.jp/shop/detail/202>

Nada Area

Sakabayashi

Restaurant attached to the Shushinkan Sake Brewery

Located in a sake brewery this is a good authentic Japanese option. For approx. USD 150 they can do a full course including drinks. May need assistance in communicating in Japanese or emailing may be best. Great selection of Sake brewed on site, including the Sake selected to be served at the Nobel Prize Awards Ceremony banquet for several years running.

This URL is in Japanese only but it will give you an idea of the uniquely Japanese atmosphere it provides.

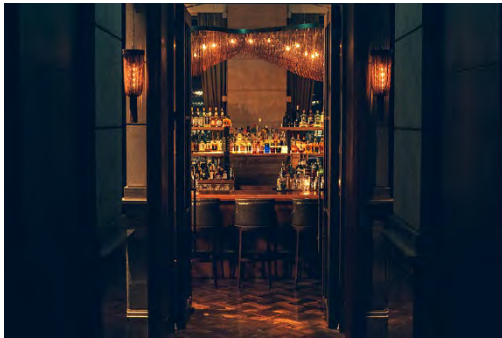

BARS

The Bar J.W. Hart, Oriental Hotel Kobe 17F (Sannomiya Area)

A very stylish bar with great views and service featuring indoor and outdoor areas. As it is inside the Oriental Hotel, you can call them directly to discuss bookings and other details.

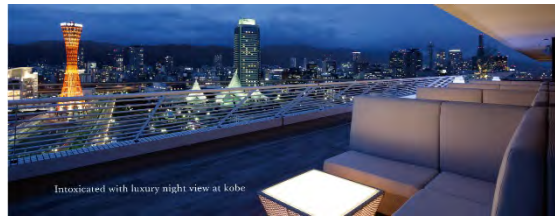

For details see this URL. <https://www.orientalhotel.jp/restaurant/jwhart/>

View Bar, Kobe Meriken Park Oriental Hotel 14F (Meriken Park/Harbour Land Area)

Excellent views, plenty of space including a terrace. Attached to the Kobe Meriken Park Oriental Hotel, you can contact the hotel directly for assistance. For details see the link.

The Harbour Tavern

A British style pub and probably one of the most popular in Kobe. Good selection of drinks and a decent menu. Quite a big space and about 1 minute walk from Sannomiya Station. No problems with English. Probably not suitable for an official function, but a good option to have as a recommendation for people looking for something familiar and easy.
